

Drivers Warned to Watch Out For Wee Witches, Hobgoblins

By BILLIE ROBERTSON
FA 8-7385

Witches and goblins will be floating around the area next Wednesday evening, so a warning to motorists to watch our youngsters is in order. The children will be wearing masks and might not be able to see too clearly. It also will be much darker than usual at that time.

A carnival for residents will be held Wednesday night at the Normandale Playground, and is sponsored by merchants, residents, and the Recreation Department. It's all designed to provide a safe place for the Halloween fun. There will be games, parades, fun booths, refreshments, and a large, open bonfire. A dance will be held beginning at 8 p.m. under the direction of the youth clubs.

Our deepest sympathy is extended this week to the George Bray family, 1450 1/2 W. 220th St., who lost a tiny daughter at birth last week.

Officers for Brownie Troop 267 were selected at the group's October meeting. Named to serve the organization were Donna Wilson, president; Markey Mutch, vice president; Paula Rowe, secretary, and Pamela Dye, treasurer. Connie Barreilleaux was named chairman of the Sunshine Girl committee. Judy Coats will be scribe, and Anita Tracy is refreshment chairman. Judy McCoy is cleanup girl, and color guards are Carol Reed, Connie Joe Myers, and Barbara Bruck.

A birthday party is planned in November for the troop which is sponsored by the Halldale PTA.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Moore have been telling neighbors about a new niece. Mrs. Moore's sister, Mrs. Vernon Phillips, whose husband is with the Naval Hospital at Port Hueneme, was a new mother last week. They are looking forward to a visit with Aunt Geneva of Torrance Blvd.

Troop mothers of Troop 216 met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Friend Harrison, 21113 Budlong Ave. Many plans for the future were discussed, the most important being the Christmas party for girls and their mothers which will be held Dec. 18.

The girls will tour the Coast Guard base on Terminal Island Nov. 24, it was announced. Mothers attending included Mmes. W. M. Snee, Loy Votaw, W. L. Wilson, D. M. Smith, T. W. Moore, C. M. Ellison, H. R. Weil, Perry Butler, Robert Bree, Harold Muth, Andy Alvarez, Albert McNeese, Friend Harrison, and myself, and Irene Perry. Next meeting will be Nov. 16.

Eight-year-old Larry Carlton, who lives with his parents at 1844 Plaza Del Amo, came in such a close second playing his electric guitar on a television show last week that he will get another chance Saturday morning at 9 on Channel 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Allen left last week for a rest and vacation in Dallas. The Allens live at 20909 LaSalle and will visit many of their former friends during the 10-day trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Emery have just announced the engagement of their daughter, Stella Mae, to Harry Biggins. The wedding will take place Nov. 10 in the First Baptist Church of Torrance.

Stella Mae lives at 1573 W. 215th St., and has been feted by many of her friends at several parties.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Abreu have several bits of news to report this week:

First, they have a new baby, Little Danny William came to their home where he joins a brother, Harry, who is 8 1/2. Second, Abreu was awarded a gold pin for five years work at Goodyear Rubber and Tire in Los Angeles.

And third, the Abreus celebrated their 12th anniversary with a dinner in their honor. Guests included Mrs. Sadie Lowe of New York, who is Mrs. Abreu's aunt.
